EASTERN NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Interview with Theodore Tilton's Parents.

NEW YORK, August 7.—The Tribune to-morrow will publish the results of an interview with the parents of Theodore Tilton. They refuse to believe that Mrs. Tilton is guilty until she confesses to them. They express undiminished faith in their son and indignantly deny the story of hereditary insanity in the family.

Frank Moulton's Statement Put Down for Monday Next.

EVENING.—To-day Mr Moulton was busily engaged in the preparation of his statement to present to the Investigating Committee.

Several members of the committee having intimated their intention to leave the city to-morrow afternoon for the country, instructed their chairman, Sage, to make arrangements with Moulton to [illegible] his statement until Monday. Sage wrote to Moulton laying the above facts before him and suggesting that he present his statement Monday afternoon, which proposition was acquiesced in by Moulton. He will appear before the committee at [illegible] o'clock Monday afternoon. This evening the committee met, their consultation lasting about two hours, and at its conclusion they visited the residence of Beecher where they remained closeted until a late hour. There will be no session of the committee to-morrow evening.

Tilton's Suit for Damages.

NEW YORK, August 8.—Judge Morris says Tilton's suit about to be brought against Beecher is irrespective of the Committee, and that the action of that body will neither hasten nor delay the commencement of the suit, which will be brought in the Supreme Court and will be an action against Beecher for criminal connection with Mrs. Tilton. The amount of damages claimed will be in accordance with the magnitude of the case, but Tilton's purpose is not to receive any pecuniary benefit, but simply to vindicate his good name against the atrocious slanders to which he has been subjected. Judge Morris says that so far as Tilton is concerned the case will be pressed for the earliest possible day.

Mayor Havemeyer's Case—A Tammany Sachem Toots his Little Horn.

NEW YORK, August 8.—Gen. Dix states that he has not yet come to any conclusion in the case of Havemeyer. Hon. John Kelly says if a special investigation were ordered he would show a state of affairs in the Police Department a year ago under the rule of Commissioners Gardner, Charlick and Smith that would astound the public. He would show that a conspiracy was formed by these Commissioners.

Co-operative Murder.

NEW YORK, August 8.—A murder was committed last night in East Brooklyn, where a property owner had hired some non-society men to do plastering, working ten hours per day. Threats were made by members of a league who were working 8 hours. Last night three of the latter—Jas. Kilduff, Thos. Melaughlin and John Kingston, quitting work, started for the building to teach the non-society men a lesson not to act in opposition to their wishes. Kilduff led the attack and the others joined. Frank struck the watchman of the premises on the head with a plasterer's hammer and killed him instantly. All the parties have been arrested.

Woodhull and Claflin Under Arrest.

NEW YORK, August 8.—Victoria Woodhull and Tennie C. Claflin were arrested to-day on a charge of not paying Charles M. Truman a nominal sum deposited with them for investment in 1871. Tennie and her mother were about to sail for Europe.

Failure of an Extensive Dry-Goods Firm.

NEW YORK, August 8.—The extensive dry-goods firm of Paton & Co. have failed to meet their extended paper in circulation. To their creditors they ascribe their failure to general depression in business and circumstances connected with a dissolution of partnership.

The Fastest Trotter in the World: Goldsmith Maid—Time, 2:15 1-2.

BUFFALO, August 7.—The ninth annual meeting of the Buffalo Park Association closed to-day. Goldsmith Maid beat the best time on record, trotting a mile in 2:15½. Twenty thousand persons were present.

The first race was for the 2:31 class, for $4,000: $2,000 to the first horse, $1,000 to the second, $600 to the third and $400 to the fourth. Henry Gold Dust won in three straight heats, Kansas Chief, Stewart, Maloney and Vanity Fair coming home in the order named. Time—2:28½, [illegible].

The second race was for the 2:20 class, purse of $1,400 divided among four. Red Cloud won, Cameron second, Gloster third, Nettie fourth. Time—2:20½, 2:19½, 2:18, 2:18½.

Goldsmith Maid, accompanied by a running horse, was trotted two heats for a purse of $2,000 to beat her own time—2:16. The second heat was accomplished in 2:15½ amid deafening applause.

The Wisconsin Railway Contest.

MILWAUKEE, August 8.—The Supreme Court did not adjourn over to-day and arguments in the railroad injunction suit were continued. Hon. B. C. Cook, attorney for the Northwestern Railroad, occupied most of the day with arguments as to the jurisdiction of the Court. Considerable confidence is expressed here from the remarks of Chief Justice Ryan yesterday that the Court will refuse to issue an injunction on the ground that it has not original jurisdiction.

The North Carolina Election.

RALEIGH, August 7.—The Democrats claim the State by a majority of from 10,000 to 20,000 in the election of Congressmen and gain twenty in the State Legislature.

The War of Races.

MEMPHIS, August 7.—A dispatch from Somerville, Tenn., says a riot is progressing there. Two men have been killed and a number wounded. The negroes are pouring in from the country. In answer to a demand by telegraph, two companies of militia and a number of volunteers will leave by special train for that city at 8 o'clock.

EVENING.—A special says fighting at Somerville commenced in a shooting affray between two men known as Oscar Burton and Paul Reeves, both of whom were killed. Late in the afternoon the fighting was still progressing.

All Quiet in Somerville.

MEMPHIS, August 8.—Parties from Somerville this morning report fighting stopped and everything quiet. The militia sent from here will return to-day. The difficulty originated in a quarrel between rival negro politicians.

Authentic Account of the Riot.

MEMPHIS, August 8.—The following is an authentic account of the troubles at Somerville yesterday. Much bad feeling had been engendered by the election and the negroes had attended heavily armed and had made threats to burn the town. A prominent negro politician, Cash Warren, who had been abusing the son of Mayor Hemlon yesterday on the street, snapped a pistol twice in the Mayor's face. The Mayor then drew a pistol and shot him dead. Several shots were fired simultaneously by friends of the Mayor. The negroes accused one Oscar Burton of firing the shot that killed Warren, and when he appeared on the streets the police attempted to arrest him. He resisted and they fired on him. He returned the fire and inflicted mortal wounds on Albert and Paul Reeves and a dangerous one on Jackson Reeves. A party of negroes then opened fire on him, but as yet none of the thirteen wounds received are fatal.

Loss of a Mississippi River Steamer with Several Lives and a Valuable Cargo.

VICKSBURG, August 8.—The steamer Henry Ames, from St. Louis to New Orleans with a full cargo of 1,500 tons assorted merchandise, struck a snag last night near Water Proof and sank in twenty five feet of water. Three lives are known to be lost. The value of boat and cargo was $190,000.

NEW ORLEANS, August 8.—The steamboat Henry Ames had 1,500 tons through and 100 tons way freight, consisting of grain, bacon, lard, flour, potatoes and hay. Four persons are known to be lost. [illegible] passengers are missing.

Miscellaneous News.

CINCINNATI, August 7.—The bodies of 22 victims of the Pat Rogers disaster have been recovered.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Report on the P. M. S. S. Co.'s Iron Steamships.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—The board of officers detailed by the Secretary of the Navy to inspect the steamships City of Peking and City of Tokio have submitted a report that they are American from keel, of the required tonnage, capable of being converted into war vessels and otherwise complying with the requirements of the Act of 1872. These steamers will soon take their places on the line of mail steamers between San Francisco, China and Japan.

The five per cent. Railway Controversy on the Boards again.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—The Secretary of the Treasury is preparing a formal demand on several Pacific railroads embraced in the act of [illegible] June requiring the payment of five per cent. of the net earnings of those Companies to the Government and imposed by the act of July 1st, [illegible]. If the demand is not complied with within sixty days, the Secretary will notify the Attorney General, who will institute legal proceedings against the roads.

A Plea for Suffering Settlers in Northwestern Iowa.

[illegible] Baker writes to Commissioner Burdett, of the Land Office, representing the sufferings of inhabitants of northwestern Iowa, owing to grasshopper ravages, and complains of the hardships of settlers who are obliged to go sometimes 200 miles to land offices to make proof of occupancy, and suggests the establishment of local land offices.

Four New Cardinals to be Created.

ROME, August 8.—Last night an armed band of 40 persons quitted Imola and proceeded to Bologna, destroying telegraph lines, and disarming railway watchmen.

The Pope has declared his intention to create four new Cardinals.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Castelar will Attempt to Secure French Recognition.

PARIS, August 7.—The [illegible] of the Spanish representative is most cordial and [illegible] with Spain are at an end.

Senor Castelar is expected at Versailles, charged with the mission of negotiating for recognition of the Republic of Spain.

MADRID, August 7.—The Republicans have relieved Tiernal and the Carlists who were besieging that place have fled.

Judicial investigation into the assassination of Marshal Prim has resulted in the indictment of fifty more persons.

Cricket and Base Ball in England.

LONDON, August 7.—In the cricket game Americans against the Princes Club the former won and had hits to spare. The Base Ball playing at Prince's this afternoon was a scratch game, two members of the Princes Club playing with the Athletics and two with the Red Stockings. The former won by a score of [illegible].

Rumor that Germany will Recognize the Spanish Republic.

PARIS, August 8.—It is reported that the German Government has notified its representatives abroad that the time has come to recognize the Spanish Republic.

The relations between France and Italy are very satisfactory.

A Bloody English Riot.

LONDON, August 8.—There was a serious riot in Portsmouth [illegible] in consequence of the pier authorities closing the thoroughfare. A mob of several thousand persons destroyed the obstruction when the police charged on them repeatedly and many [illegible] were severely injured.

LONDON, August 8.—Arrived at Liverpool—Ship John O Gaunt from San Francisco.

[illegible]

BERLIN, August 8.—Emperor William has approved the verdict of acquittal in the case of Capt. Werner, who was tried by Court Martial for his conduct in the Mediterranean at the time of the Intransigente insurrection in Carthagena.

The German war ships Nautilus and Albatross sailed from Kiel to-day for Spain. They will touch at Plymouth.

Duke de Cazes Denies Collusion with the Carlists.

LONDON, August 8, 6 A. M.—The Times publishes the text of a long dispatch from Duke de Cazes categorically denying charges of connivance with the Carlists. The Duke says Lizarraga's escape from arrest while passing from Bayonne to Perpignan was due to a misunderstanding of the local authorities.

A Royal Bankrupt.

NEW YORK, August 8.—A London letter says: "A report has suddenly gained currency that a long expected crisis had occurred in the financial affairs of the Prince of Wales, and the Ministry have made up their minds to propose to the House of Commons at the next session to pay his debts. The sum named is 40,000 pounds sterling—four times the sum voted in 1867 to appease the creditors of that pattern of royalty. One view is that the honor of the nation is concerned in providing for these debts. Another is that these debts are of a character which ought to be paid out of the accumulated fortune of the Queen. The latter view is based on the well known fact that she has been receiving ever since the death of Albert the whole income calculated at her accession to support the expenses of a Court in the usual degree of splendor, that Her Majesty has however lived during this period for the most part in retirement, and that the cost of drawing room levees and other royal pageantry has in fact fallen upon the Prince and Princess of Wales, whose income has been unequal to such a burden."

NOVA SCOTIA.

Anxiety for a Missing Vessel.

HALIFAX, August 8.—Anxiety is felt at the non arrival of a vessel which left Norway July 23 with one hundred families from Iceland for Halifax.

CANADA.

QUEBEC, August 7.—The inhabitants of Port Neuf have been greatly terrified recently by rumblings and earth heavings in that vicinity. Many have left their homes.

AUSTRALIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 9.—The British steamer Macgregor arrived last night, 35 days from Sydney. The steamer Mikado had arrived at Sydney nine days over due. Machinery out of order from overwork.

The wreck of the British Admiral had been sold for £2050. Six bodies found on shore were interred.

In a prize fight near Ballarat a man named Blair was killed by his opponent.

Proceedings in the South Australian Assembly 9th of June are described as extremely disgraceful. No particulars given.

The people of Fiji are impatiently waiting the decision of the British Government on the question of annexation.

The Commissioner sent from France to New Zealand to investigate the facts relative to the escape of Rochefort has been at work, the result of which will be that all Communists in New Caledonia will be removed to the Island of Pines for better security.

Immigrants are arriving in New Zealand from Great Britain at the rate of 6,000 per month.

Wonderful gold discoveries are reported from the Thames District, 40 miles from Auckland.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, 9.—The steamer McGregor brings Honolulu dates to July 29th. The Gazette complains that the King's Cabinet is weak and says it ought to be remodeled—that the present members are mere "adventurers."

The Legislative Assembly has passed an appropriation bill for $[illegible]; also a bill to aid steam navigation to foreign countries passed to a final reading.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Colonist says the office of the Eureka Silver Mining Company has been removed from Yale to New Westminster.

It is the intention of the Postmaster General of the Dominion that hereafter security for the faithful discharge of the duties of their office will be exacted from all postoffice employes holding positions of trust.

Mr. O. Allard, the Hudson Bay Company's Trader at Langley, died on Sunday last, aged 68 years. He was a native of the Province of Quebec, and came to this coast in early times, where his good-heartedness and hospitality had passed into a proverb.

To Victoria the Enterprise brought down five hundred cases of canned salmon from Deas's fishery, near the mouth of the Fraser. Enormous quantities of salmon are being put up at that establishment, as also at similar establishments further up the river.

Last week one of Mr. McLellan's road party was terribly injured by the falling of a branch. No effort was spared on the part of Mr. McLellan to secure medical aid, and at latest accounts he was under the care of Dr. McInnis, but with a slim chance of recovery, it was feared.

Two parties of railway surveyors will immediately operate on the Fraser river route. One party under Mr. Cambie will survey the Fraser down as far as Hope, and Mr. John Trutch will direct the survey from that point to Burrard Inlet, for which purpose he is now organizing a company in Victoria, all of which looks as if an effort were to be made to bring the road by the southern route.

A miner who had been credited by storekeepers at Cassiar sold his claim a few days ago and tried to leave the country without discharging his liabilities. One of the storekeepers espied him as he was preparing to cross Deas Lake in a boat, and jumped into the water and laid hold of the fugitive and held him till he discharged the amount of the claim. Others of his victims got out a capias and a constable is now hunting the debtor through the mountains of the frigid zone.

Letters received at Victoria from Cassiar give a most discouraging account of matters there. Kath Bros. have abandoned the claim they took up last fall on Deas creek, and some of the claims taken up early in the spring are also deserted. About $6,000 in gold dust came down on the Otter—$160 by express and the remainder in the hands of miners and Mr. McLeod the packer. It has become painfully evident that the area of the gold field is limited, which fact, added to the high price of provisions and the shortness of the season, will cause a light yield of the precious metal.

In coming out from Deas creek Mr. McLeod, the well known packer, nearly fell a victim to highwaymen. He left the creek early in the morning, crossed the lake in a boat and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon jumped on his horse at the head of the lake and rode out on the trail towards Stikine river. When he had made fourteen miles and was descending a sidehill grade he saw two men with faces blackened standing under a tree about 100 feet distant, each with a pistol in his hand. Mr. McLeod instantly put spurs to his horse and dashed on. The men ran towards the trail to head him off, but he passed beyond their reach before they gained the trail.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 7.—The steamer McGregor, 35 days from Australia, arrived last night.

The German steamer Alsace will sail for China next Saturday.

Thomas Strong, mate of the ship Pride of P[illegible], which arrived yesterday from Boston, was arrested last night for the murder of the sailor Antone Spaniole by knocking him from the foretop to the deck when 12 days out from San Francisco.

In response to the charges made in Michael Reese's complaint, Milton S. Latham publishes a card in which he says: "In last evening's and this morning's papers appears a synopsis of a complaint filed by Michael Reese against the California Pacific Railway Company and others, in which my name is used as the leading defendant and I am made to figure as connected with the frauds therein alleged to have been committed upon the company. I desire to say that all these charges affecting me are in their length and breadth wholly false. At the proper time I shall establish conclusively the truth of this assertion. I never had any connection with any of the enterprises mentioned in Mr. Reese's complaint, except such as any business man or banker might honorably assume."

SAN FRANCISCO, August 8.—The friends and relatives of the late W. B. Bourn, being confident that he was accidentally shot instead of having killed himself, procured an order from the County Judge directing a new inquest to be held. To-day Coroner Rice and several physicians with the friends of the deceased will proceed to the cemetery where the body will be exhumed and an examination made if possible. Further testimony relative to the case will be taken next week.

Greenbacks unchanged.

The weather is pleasant.

Companies F and L, of the Fourth U. S. Artillery, leave to-day on the Ajax en route to Sitka. Companies C and D, which have been in Alaska since 1872, will be relieved.

Interior California.

SACRAMENTO, August 8.—The examination of John G. Rabel, charged with poisoning food, was continued till Monday.

EUREKA, August 8.—The new schooner which has been building at the Bendixsen ship yard for parties in San Francisco is ready for launching. Mr. Bendixsen has contracted to build two more schooners which are to be constructed immediately, one of which is designed for the South Sea Island trade and the other for the coasting trade.

Mrs. Margaretta Castian, yesterday, was examined before Drs. Barber and Schenck on a charge of insanity. The charge was sustained and the unfortunate woman was ordered to be taken to the insane asylum.

Buckshot township has just voted on the local option question. There is a majority of twenty seven against license.

A special to the Times to-day from Arcata, says a party of three citizens left there this morning on a prospecting tour to Salmon river. It is rumored that some rich quartz discoveries have been made in that section. It is generally supposed that the party all being scientific men have gone to make an intelligent examination of the mine.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 8.—The steamer Colorado, from China and Japan, brought about 800 Chinese and 1,000 tons of freight for New York, via Panama. Chinese and Japanese news of little general interest.

The men who tried to assassinate Iwakura have been beheaded.

The Japanese refuse foreigners permission to go into the interior unless they agree to become Japanese subjects.

NEVADA.

HAMILTON, August 8.—Donovan, who killed McWilliams at Cherry Creek last December, was to-day sentenced to the State Prison for life. The prisoner betrayed considerable emotion on hearing the sentence. He will be taken to Carson next week.

EUREKA, August 9.—E. B. Claypole, a teamster who was kicked by a mule a few days since at Garden valley station, died of his injuries last evening. Deceased was a native of Elizabeth, Ill., and about 40 years of age. The body was brought into town and the funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

THE BEECHER-TILTON CASE.

TILTON AND MRS. TILTON.

[From the report of Tilton's cross examination.]

Q.—Well, it was that lack of reverence for the Church and its ordinances and your lack of belief in the divinity of Christ, as she held it, that she missed in you? A.—Yes.

Q.—And she grieved over it? A.—Oh, yes, indeed, grieved over it with tears.

Q.—And what she found wanting in you she found in Mr. Beecher, did she not? A.—Yes, she did, and he took advantage of it; that is why I say he ought to [illegible] the rest of his life in penitence and anguish. If Mr. Beecher had held the same religious views that I hold and gone to that house denying the divinity of Christ he never could have made any approach to her, and the affection and love which she bore to him would never have existed—I mean the strong affection—it could not possibly have done so.

Q.—The enthusiasm for him which she felt would never have existed in that case? A.—No.

Q.—You have no doubt that it was that feature in his character which roused her enthusiasm and made him to her a sort of poem, did it not? A.—Yes, a sort of apostle. I think she regarded Mr. Beecher almost as though Jesus Christ himself had walked in; that is an extravagant expression, but you must not take it literally. I know that he wanted to make the children look upon the clergy with reverence. She ought to be an intense Roman Catholic like Mme. Guion—a mystic. I think she certainly spends hours on her knees some days. I don't suppose a day ever passes over Elizabeth that the sun, if he could peep through the windows, would not see her on her knees; my oldest daughter Florence, though she looks like me, is like her mother. Here has come the great calamity on my house; there was that publication last night; she saw it, and this morning, what did she do? I heard a noise in the house and found that she was down in the front parlor playing on the melodeon like a heroine standing in the midst of this calamity like a rock in the sea; she gets that somewhat from me, I can stand all storms; she gets also from her mother the religious inspiration. Florence this morning had a genius religion when you would suppose that she would have been crushed. You (Gen. Tracy) are not stronger in the court room than she was this morning at that musical instrument.

Q.—You use the expression in regard to your daughter "genius for religion;" does not that express the character of your wife? A.—Yes, even more so; my daughter is more intellectual; she is an abler and more stable woman, though not so sentimental, and less demonstrative; they are both great characters.

Q.—Well, she is a character who could have an intimacy and reverence and enthusiasm for a man of Mr. Beecher's temperament and religious convictions and teachings and carry it to an extreme length, without the thought of passion or criminality? A.—I do not think the thoughts of passion and of criminality were in her breast at all. I think they were altogether in his. I think she thought only of her love and reverence.

Q.—Such a character would not excite the thought of jealousy as to her? A.—Not in the slightest. I never had the slightest feeling of jealousy in regard to Elizabeth.

Q.—The fact that she was manifesting this enthusiasm and all that would not lead you to suspect her motives and purity originally? A.—It would not; later it did.

Q.—For how long a period? A.—I do not know. I remember I wrote her some letters which, if she has kept them, would fix the date. There was a time when I felt that Mr. Beecher was using his influence greatly upon her.

Q.—To control her in her domestic relations with you? A.—No, but to win her; he was always trying to get her to say that she loved him better than me.

Q.—She never would say it? A.—I don't think she ever did.

Q.—You do not believe she ever felt or believed it, do you? A.—No; that is to say, in one sense she loved him; she loved his religious views; she loved him as an evangelical minister; but I don't think that on the whole he was as much to her as I was; still, of course, Mr. Tracy, I cannot question her motives; if she should say he was more to her than I was, I cannot dispute it.

Q.—You set out a letter that she wrote on the night of Dec. 30, after you returned to your house, referring to the retraction she had given to Mr. Beecher; did she write that letter or did you? A.—She wrote it.

Q.—Did you dictate it? A.—No.

Q.—Why did she write it? A.—Because I asked her to make a calm statement of what she had designed in this letter to Mr. Beecher. She was in such a state of agony that she told me she could not recall her letter to him; she said she had given him that letter that he might fortify himself in a council of ministers; I asked her to take a pen at the end of the evening and give the exact circumstances, and explain what she meant by it, and she wrote that letter; it was only the next day that the other letter came back, and then this one ceased to be of any importance. What struck me in that business as so damnable in Mr. Beecher was that after coming and confessing to me and Mr. Moulton his criminal relations with Mrs. Tilton, and then asking to see her a few minutes, and going round the corner to see her, he should have come back again in half an hour expressing his absolute heart-brokenness, whereas he had in his pocket this retraction from her. I say it was damnable and nefarious.

Q.—Do you say that when you saw Mr. Beecher at Mr. Moulton's house Mr. Moulton was present? A.—Yes, he was present in this way. I wanted a lengthy interview with Mr. Beecher alone, and when he came into the room I locked the door and put the key in my pocket, and narrated in order Elizabeth's confession; it was a long one, and it would have been indelicate for me to touch it with any more elaboration than I have done here. I do not wish to be questioned about it; it was a long story.

Q.—Was Mr. Moulton present? A.—Not at that part of the interview; after the door was opened he was; the interview that we three together had was very short. I was on the stairs while Mr. Beecher talked to Mr. Moulton on the stairs; that interview was to bring me and Mr. Beecher together the next time we all three had an interview.

Q.—This retraction, you say in your communication, Mr. Beecher returned to you through Mr. Moulton; is that true? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Was that retraction ever delivered to you? A.—I have got it now.

Q.—Is it not in the possession of Mr. Moulton? A.—Yes, but it belongs to me. Mr. Moulton had a safe place and I had not, and he has some of my papers.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN SAGE AND TILTON.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The Brooklyn Argus says the following interchange of letters took place yesterday between Mr. Sage, Chairman of the Beecher Investigation Committee, and Theodore Tilton:

SAGE TO TILTON.

BROOKLYN, July 31, 1874.

To Theodore Tilton, Esq.—DEAR SIR: I am instructed by the Committee to state that the letters and documents referred to in your statement presented to us have not been delivered, notwithstanding your several promises to furnish them. As your statement in the absence of these documents is deprived of its greatest force, we think you should desire to place them in our possession, and I desire to impress on you the importance of delivering them to us at your earliest convenience. Yours very truly,

H. W. SAGE, Chairman.

TILTON TO SAGE.

BROOKLYN, August 3, 1874.

To Mr. Henry W. Sage, Chairman of the Committee—MY DEAR SIR: I have just received your notice of July 31st, four days after date. Unless you accidentally misdated it, the communication should have come to me several days ago. This leads me to recall a similar dilatoriness in the delivery of your original note first summoning me to your Committee, which I received only four hours before I was to appear, and yet the summons bore date of the day previous. But let these trifles pass. Your note just received surprises me by its contents, for you seem to have forgotten that on the first day of my appearance before your Committee I carried to your meeting not only the documents which I quoted in my sworn statement, save those in Moulton's possession, but many more besides, making a double handful of interesting and important papers, vital to my case and destructive of yours. All these papers I purposed to lay before you, but no sooner had I begun to read them aloud in your presence than one of your attorneys stopped me and proposed that I should save the committee's time by referring these papers to one of your members, Hon. John Winslow. I acquiesced in the suggestion, and retired from the committee with the expectation of a speedy conference with Mr. Winslow. Perhaps it was my proper duty to call on Mr. Winslow, but as the whole committee had previously set the example of calling in a body on one or the other parties to this controversy, I took it for granted that Mr. Winslow would repeat the precedent by doing me the honor of calling at my house, at which he would have been a welcome guest. But while waiting for his coming I was called upon instead by a policeman who carried me at thirty minutes' notice before Justice Reilly's Court to answer to a charge of libelling Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, against whom I had spoken no libel but truth. Up to this time of arrest I had employed no lawyer, not needing any, but finding myself before a Police Court and not understanding the motive for my arrest, nor the methods of Courts, I requested my friend Judge S. D. Morris to answer for me in technical proceedings which I knew not how to answer properly myself. Twice already I have been before this unexpected tribunal and may be called before it a third time, on Wednesday. Meanwhile my counsel to whom I have just shown your note instructs me to lay no document, paper or remaining testimony before your Committee, nor to hold any further communication with you in any form, except to send you this present and final letter containing reasons for this step. These reasons are as follows:

First—You are a Committee of Mr. Beecher's friends appointed by himself, and expected to act in his behalf, assisted by attorneys employed exclusively for his vindication; holding secret sessions, inaccessible to the public; having no power to compel the attendance of witnesses; giving no opportunity for the opposite side to cross-examine such as voluntarily appear; publishing or suppressing their testimony as you see fit; and, as my own experience goes, asking no questions save such as were irrelevant to the case, and omitting to publish in your imperfect and unjust report of my testimony all that was most pertinent to my own side of the controversy.

Second—The daily papers of Brooklyn and New York have been artfully fed day by day with crumbs of fictitious evidence against my own character, as if not Mr. Beecher, but I alone were the man on trial, and though I have little right perhaps to hold your Committee responsible for this daily misrepresentation, which may come through many others, yet the result is the same to me as if you had deliberately designed it, and that result is this, namely: I expect no justice either from your tribunal, since you cannot compel witnesses to testify, nor from your reporters, since they do not give impartial reports.

Third—I cannot resist the conviction, though I mean no offense in expressing it, that your Committee has come to be as little satisfactory to the public as to myself, and that your verdict, if you render one, could not possibly be based on the full facts, since you have no power to compel witnesses nor verify their testimony by oath, nor sift it by cross-examination.

For these reasons, which ought to have moved me earlier, I have at last instructed my counsel to proceed at once in his discretion to carry my case from your jurisdiction to a court of law, and in view of this instruction from me he has in turn instructed me to hold no further communication with your Committee except by the present letter, in which I have the honor to bid you farewell; in doing which allow me to add that respect which, unable to entertain for your Committee as a tribunal, I cannot help expressing for you each and all as individuals. Truly yours,

THEODORE TILTON.

Truthful Theodore's Arrest.

HOW MR. TILTON LIGHTLY TURNED TO THOUGHTS OF A JAIL—THE SCENE IN COURT, ETC.

This document [the warrant of arrest in Gaynor's libel suit] was intrusted to the hands of Deputy Sheriff Thomas Shaughnessy, who, without much ado, proceeded to Mr. Tilton's residence, where he arrived about four o'clock.

TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

"Is Mr. Tilton at home?" asked Mr. Shaughnessy, who being answered in the affirmative, stepped in, with his hat in his hand.

"I am Mr. Tilton," answered that gentleman, rising from the sofa and coming forward to receive his visitor.

"Well, sir," said the officer, "I have a warrant for your arrest. I belong to the Third District Court."

"What! a warrant for my arrest?" said Mr. Tilton, laughing.

"Yes, sir," remarked the officer of the law, "here it is," at the same time handing it to Mr. Tilton, who smiled as he read it over.

"And must I go with you now?" asked Mr. Tilton.

"The Judge is waiting for you," said the officer, whereupon Mr. Tilton asked him to wait until he wrote a note to a friend with whom he had intended to go to Coney Island, and having finished the note turned around to some parties in the room, observing, "Now, gentlemen, will you accompany me to the jail?"

Mr. Tilton then put on his hat, and quitting the house in charge of the officer, proceeded to the Third District Court.

THE SCENE IN COURT.

It was now nearly 5 o'clock and but few persons—not more than ten—were in the Court when Mr. Tilton walked boldly towards the bench upon which Justice Riley had already taken his seat. Mr. Tilton seemed to be in rather a pleasant frame of mind. He asked the Judge smilingly whether he wanted him, and the following conversation then ensued:

"Well, Mr. Tilton," observed the Judge, "there is a charge of libel against you," and the affidavits and warrants were therefore read in open Court, after which the Judge made the following inquiries:

"What do you say to that, Mr. Tilton?"

Mr. Tilton inquired whether it was possible for him to obtain copies of the documents, to which the Judge replied in the affirmative.

"Now then, Mr. Tilton," asked the Judge, "do you plead guilty?"

"Well," replied Mr. Tilton, "I am not well posted in legal matters, I will have to ask your opinion on the subject."

"I must ask you," said the Judge, "whether you plead guilty or not guilty."

"Everything is true," replied Mr. Tilton. "One of these statements was published without my knowledge. The other was published with my knowledge and consent."

What do you plead, Mr. Tilton, guilty or not guilty?

Mr. Tilton—Well, not guilty. Before you take that I would ask if it makes any difference in regard to the case as to the way I plead?

"If you plead 'not guilty,'" remarked the Judge, "you are entitled to a judgment and a hearing."

"Not guilty, then," said Mr. Tilton, and, taking his hat, was about to walk away, thinking the preliminaries had been arranged.

"Mr. Tilton," said the Judge, "I will have to hold you in $2,500 bail."

"Oh," said Mr. Tilton, musingly, "bail—you want bail. Well, sir, I give you my word of honor I will be here to-morrow morning at ten o'clock with my bail."

"Very well, Mr. Tilton, you can go until to-morrow morning, when you will appear and give bail to the extent of $2,500."

"Very well, sir," said Mr. Tilton good humoredly, and having mentioned the fact that he would employ counsel, entered a carriage with a friend and drove to Coney Island.—N. Y. Herald, July 29th.

COOS BAY ITEMS.

Says our Empire City correspondent under date of August 4th:

The Eastport brought 37 passengers on her last trip up.

Shipment of coal past week, 1,000 tons, of lumber 475 M feet.

The Bay steamers Satellite and Messenger are running with great regularity.

A new coal mine will soon be opened near this city by B. B. Jones, agent for a San Francisco [illegible].

Empire City wants a blacksmith and a bank—not a coal bank by any means, as we have plenty of em.

Mr. Iles met with a severe accident last week while working on the ways, which will lay him up for a fortnight.

Capt. McAlloss retires from the command of the steamer Eastport, and first mate J. T. Whitney will assume charge.

A few days ago a son of H. H. Barrett, living on the Bay, was so severely injured in the head by the kick of a horse that slight hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The following vessels arrived since the 28th ult: Steamer Eastport, schooners Bay River, Alaska, Norway, Aurora, Clara Light and W. H. Stevens. Sailed—Steamers Eastport and Empire, schooners Enterprise and bark Clara Light.

The Boise Statesman of August 4th says: "John S. Gray, Deputy United States Marshal, has returned from Oneida county, where he has been on business connected with the late term of the District Court in that county. The United States grand jury made it pretty lively for the perjured scoundrels who came over from Utah and took out their naturalization papers in Judge Hollister's court. They returned to Utah, where the Marshal of that Territory will look them up unless they make themselves scarce. One witness, Charles Duvander, who lives in this Territory, and swore to the residence of these parties as being in Idaho, was found in Oneida county, and tried and convicted of perjury."

A WOMAN AND THREE CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.—Yankton, D. T., July 29.—A sad occurrence happened thirteen miles from here on Tuesday night by the burning of the farmhouse of a Mr. Shoffhousen, whereby he lost his wife and three children. He was absent from home and his wife was not aware of the fire until the roof of the house fell in, when she dragged herself and infant out and walked a mile and a half, but both died within ten hours. The other two children were burned in the ruins. The remains of the four were buried in one grave to-day.

SPOILING FOR A FIGHT.—New York, July 29.—Jose Herrer de Courts, the editor of Cronista (the Spanish organ here), has sailed for Belgium, he having accepted a challenge to a duel in that country with Juan Bellado de Leona, the editor of the Cuban paper La Independencia. An effort is making to detain the latter in this country. Both are now under bonds not to fight a duel in the United States.

Mr. Henry Walker, who has been extensively engaged in prospecting in the Yakima mines this summer, returned to Olympia on Saturday last fully satisfied that the mines there are of little value.

OREGON.

A rich quartz ledge has been discovered on Burnt river.

The Liberal Republican comes on the "half shell" this week.

The bridge just beyond Eola is in a bad condition. It is dangerous to cross it.

Capt. T. J. Stump has sold his residence at the Dalles and will move to Portland.

Wheat of the new crop is being stored in the Corvallis warehouses quite rapidly.

Many children in the neighborhood of Ellensburg are sick with the whooping cough.

A number of immigrants, from Mississippi, are expected to arrive in Benton county this fall.

In the Long Tom region harvest is under full headway and wages are from $1 50 to $2 per day.

The hills of Baker county are covered with grouse. They [illegible].

The steamer [illegible] is to be [illegible] the Cascades, and put on the route between that place and the Dalles.

The Sisters will open their school at Jacksonville on Monday, August 17th, after a vacation of several weeks.

The new paper, the Baker City Journal, is dead. Its whole existence, covering three or four issues, was sickly.

Rye Valley mining camp, Baker county, is very active and bids fair to rival Silver City, in the Owyhee, in richness.

The main span of the bridge across the Willamette at Springfield is finished. The public expect to cross on the bridge by the 1st prox.

Joseph Dowden, of Sams Valley, Southern Oregon, this year cultivated a crop of oats which averaged 125 bushels to the acre. Who can beat it?

David Cronemiller of Jacksonville has received the appointment of Deputy Great Sachem of the Improved Order of Red Men for District No. 1.

The fishery at Rogue river is doing nothing at the present time, as the fishing season is past. The proprietors are making preparations for a grand catch this fall.

Never since the first settlement of Benton county has there been such an acreage of grain to cut, and never were the farmers more intent on their work. Harvesting is all the go.

T. L. Davidson, Chairman of the Committee on Printing of the State Agricultural Society, awarded the contract yesterday to E. M. Waite, whose bid was the lowest sent in.

The mill at Port Orford is cutting lumber and the railroad to the choice cedar is fast being completed. The mill will be cutting lumber for shipment by the first of September.

A man in Auburn, Baker county, is in a bad fix. Mrs. Chamberlain, a spiritual medium, tells him he has a lizard an inch in diameter, and alive and kicking, in his [illegible].

The survey of the proposed road up the Santiam and across the Cascade Mountains cost Marion county $1,282 10. The County Court of that county has ordered the location of the road.

Our Baker City correspondent, under date of the 4th, writes that Crow and Bulger had struck an extension of the Bailey Bro.'s ledge, in which was a rich pocket, turning out $2 and $3 to the pan.

A pair of fine horses belonging to Mr. Butterfield, of Lane county, were drowned near Eugene a few days ago. They were driven upon some floating brush which the driver thought was solid.

Last week Mr. Dougherty set fire to some brush, which [illegible] and consumed the bridge over Elk creek, in the northern part of Douglas county. Mr. D. also lost a valuable wagon which he had placed under the bridge for safety.

The annual firemen's election for Chief and Assistant Engineers of the Dalles Fire Department, came off on Monday the 3d inst., and resulted in the choice of R. Lusher for Chief, and a tie vote between Henry Wentz and Jas. Croesen for Assistant Engineer.

The Sheriff of Union county was in Baker City last Monday with an affidavit for the arrest of an individual named Jones, charged with burglary, committed in Union county. The accused was arrested and taken [illegible] to Union county for examination.

A letter from Fifteen Mile Creek, Wasco county, states under date of August 5th, that the harvest is well along and grain will turn out well. The amount of hay saved this year is larger than usual. Grass on the range is short but cattle are in good condition.

Lot Livermore, Esq., of Pendleton, informs us that on the 3d inst. while Mr. H. C. Stewart, of Birch Creek, was hunting, near the Umatilla river he fell over a cliff opposite Cape Horn and was instantly killed by the fall, being literally dashed to pieces. The cause of his fall is unknown, as no one was with him.

Mr. Robert N. Williams has bought J. M. McCartney's interest in the [illegible] Creek Mine and quartz mill owned by Messrs. Hoover & McCartney, paying $6,600 for a one-half interest over and above all debts and liabilities on the mine and mill. This was a cash sale. Mr. Williams is a practical quartz man, and knows what he is about.

The people of the Dalles talk of putting sail boats on the Columbia river above that place. It is claimed that the cost of running a steamboat to Wallula and back is no small item, the wood alone costing at least $70. While a sail-boat can be manned by three men, one white and two Indians, the cost of which would be almost nothing compared to that of running a steamboat.

The Eugene Journal says: "A very large portion of the cultivated land in Lane county is in wheat this season. There are neighborhoods where the eye sees scarcely anything but wheat fields for miles. The yield will not be as much to the acre as it has been on some former years, but the total amount of wheat produced will be great. The farmers are now in the midst of their harvest."

The Polk county paper says: "The wheat yield of that county this year will be an abundant one. The farmers are all in the highest spirits in anticipation of a full pocket of coin for their labors this season. Since the 3d inst. the hum of the threshing machine has greeted the ear in all directions. Farmers have been scarcely able to obtain help enough to secure the grain as fast as it ripens."

A gentleman from Gardiner, states that there are seven vessels due at that place. The Annie Stauffer had her cargo completed, when our informant left. The Simpson mill loaded 11 vessels since the 15th of May, and the Hinsdale mill loaded two. The latter mill has lumber enough on hand to load seven vessels and expect to ship it to San Francisco this month. Mill hands are in great demand over there, and good men can find steady employment.

The Oakland Call understands that Mr. Sherman V. Rathburn, of Douglas county, has struck a big thing. An estate in Scotland, valued at £64,000,000, equal to about $320,000,000, is looking for claimants and Rathburn is one of 'em. The heirs are scattered in different parts of the United States, most of them in Virginia—Rathburn's native State. The property is known as the "Mar Estate," and his mother was a "Mar." If he wants an advance agent, we are ready to go.

On the 24th ult. Bogus Charley, one of the chiefs of the Modoc tribe, was in St. Louis with H. M. Jones, agent of the Pawpaw Reservation, where the remnant of the Modoc tribe is stationed. Charley held levees at the St. Clair Hotel and was to return to the reservation with Jones. The tribe on the reservation numbers 153, and it is said by the agent that their conduct is very exemplary, that they show a disposition to work, and have abandoned the practice of gambling.

A letter from Willow Forks, Umatilla county, dated July 31st, says: "Most farmers are done harvesting. The yield of hay and grain is greater than for many years. A peddler calling himself A. B. Butler has been operating quite extensively in this county and has victimized the people beyond endurance. Quite a number of our best citizens who had been bilked by this sharper followed him and compelled him, after some mild persuasion, to retake the goods and return the money."

The Annual Conference of the M. E. Church South, will be held at their camp ground at Dixie, Polk county, (and not at Salem, as heretofore announced), commencing on Thursday, September 10th, and continuing over Sunday. Bishop P[illegible], of Georgia, will preside, and positively no huckstering [illegible] or other traffic will be allowed on the grounds, or within the limits prohibited by law. [illegible] will be a table at which persons from a distance can obtain [illegible]. Everybody is invited.

From the Baker City [illegible] we learn [illegible] on the 3d [illegible] Mr. C. M. [illegible], U. S. Surveyor and Wm. F. McC[illegible] [illegible] survey a route for a railroad from Baker to [illegible] [illegible] Day's [illegible], if the [illegible] is found to be [illegible].

THE ELECTION LAW.

It is hoped the approaching Legislature will not neglect to give proper attention to the condition of the election law of this State. We have heretofore and at length urged the importance of a law for the registration of voters and have endeavored to point out some of the peculiar and exceptional provisions which our Constitution makes necessary, as also those it will be required to make the law effective without imposing too great inconvenience upon the voters.

But a registry law is not all that is needed to perfect the election laws. A citizen has the right to vote anywhere in the State for State officers. At every general election many voters being absent from their precinct and county vote for State officers only, and some who are within the district in which they reside, but not in their own county vote for State and district officers leaving off the county and precinct ticket. Such cases were easy enough to get along with when the voting was viva voce, but since the law has been changed so that voting is done by ballot there is no way provided by law to protect the ballot-box against frauds in this matter. A man clearly entitled to vote for State officers, but not for county and precinct officers, presents himself and tenders his folded ballot, saying he votes only for State officers. There is no law directing the judges of election to open his ballot to see that he votes for none but State officers. To allow that to be done would be to annul the ballot, so far as voters of this class are concerned. We are aware that this course was taken by the judges at the last general election, and as a "military necessity" we consider it was excusable, but the law should be so amended that there would be no occasion for stretching it over cases not provided for, or for violating its manifest spirit in order to prevent illegal voting. There should be either a provision requiring separate ballot boxes for State tickets only, or State and district only, from that in which full tickets are deposited, or else a provision requiring the judges to see that on the back of every ticket offered as a State ticket only, or State and district only, there is written the class of ticket which it is represented to be. By either of these methods the judges would be able to tell when they came to count the votes whether the vote was what it was claimed to be, and if it was not could reject it pro tanto or as a whole as the law might direct. The law should be amended so as to meet this case, and we see no way except those above suggested without making the registry law extremely unwieldy and expensive. The object of the law should be to keep the ballot box pure, and to prevent and detect frauds, with the least possible expense.

Another point in which the law might be amended is the provision requiring the County Courts so to divide their counties into precincts that not more than 500 votes should be embraced in a precinct. The provision was very expedient under the viva voce system, because not more than 500 full tickets could be conveniently received at one polling place, but there is no longer any need of such a section. It only adds to the expense of the election without securing any corresponding advantage. The provision should be repealed since the necessity for it has ceased.

THE CASE OF HON. H. G. STRUVE.

Hitherto we have refrained from taking any part in the circulation of the charges against Hon. H. G. Struve, Secretary of Washington Territory, concerning which so much has been said in the papers of the Territory. It has appeared to us that more was being made of the case than its importance demanded. Besides it is usually not a little difficult to get at the exact truth in cases where the bitterness of political prejudice or of personal animosity is infused into the statements on the one hand, or on the other the partiality of political or personal friendship colors the story. We are pleased to see, however, that in this case there appears to be involved no political feeling, whatever individual hostility or personal favor may enter into the discussion. Mr. Struve's political opponents, for the most part, have shown a generous sympathy with him.

We take from the Olympia Transcript of the 8th instant the subjoined candid and considerate statement of the facts in the premises:

Some weeks since a man named Dougherty in Portland made affidavit to a statement charging H. G. Struve, our present Territorial Secretary and Grand Master of the Oregon and Washington Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows with being a deserter from the army of the United States, narrating carefully the circumstances of the case and sending the same to Secretary Fish of the Department of State. The latter referred the matter to the Secretary of War and he in turn to the Attorney General who directed District Attorney Wingard to work up the case and make full report as soon as possible. That gentleman did as instructed and one day this week mailed his report and accompanying papers. There is no longer a doubt of the truth of Dougherty's statement. Mr Struve shortly after coming from Germany to this country and while yet a mere boy, ignorant of the language and customs of the new people with whom he found himself in contact enlisted in the army in order perhaps to enable him to earn an honest livelihood which must always be a thing of great difficulty to young people situated as he was. Military life was very distasteful to him and after serving a year or two he deserted. Since then (now twenty years, the greater number of which have been spent in this Territory) he has pursued an upright course and constantly advanced in the esteem and trust of the people occupying now and in the past many positions of confidence, prominence and honor. To undo his wrong—which was of trifling character and no injury to any one—was utterly impossible and Mr Struve endeavored to make atonement in other ways. * * * Mr Struve is making the best fight he can and has the sympathy of all good people to whom the facts are known. He has an estimable wife and seven children dependent upon him and for their sake if not his own, he should be spared. In common with others we join in the prayer for the utmost clemency.

We have been personally and somewhat [illegible] acquainted with Mr Stru[illegible] [illegible] gentleman, and we can not but think the merely technical offense of his boyhood ought now to be overlooked. He left the army in time of profound peace, when his services were not needed, nor his desertion liable to bring harm to the Government. He was but a boy, and a poor stranger boy at that, besides, while there is a technical or legal difference, the wrong he committed is no worse from a moral point of view, than any other mere breach of a contract for service. And nobody thinks of holding a man in lasting disgrace because when he was a lad he engaged to work for six months and quit at the end of three.

THE THREE LABORS YET TO BE PERFORMED.

The famous manifesto of the "Union Republican Congressional Committee," in its closing appeal to the country for support, states that there are great works yet to be done which the Republican party is peculiarly adapted to perform, and the importance of which to the country makes it important that the party be sustained in power till it shall have accomplished them. These three labors are: (1) the providing by "appropriate legislation" for the complete enforcement of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution; (2) the regulation of the currency; and, (3) the solution of the question of cheap transportation.

No one who believes in the principle declared in the Fourteenth Amendment, as we believe in it, but would regret deeply to see it fail for want of proper legislation. But what have the Republicans been doing during all the long six years since the Fourteenth Amendment became a part of the supreme law of the land, that they just now ask an extension of time in which to make this amendment effectual by suitable Congressional action? All this time they have had the most complete and unlimited sway in Congress and in the White House, and yet they confess they have failed to put the Constitution in force. What ground is there to hope they will do better hereafter?

As to the second matter, the regulation of the currency, the committee itself declares no plan has been suggested for the regulation of the currency, on which the party can agree. By what process of reasoning can it be demonstrated that the happy thought that is to solve the currency problem, and which it is admitted has not yet dawned, will first flash upon the Republican, and not the Democratic, intellect? Hitherto both parties have gone it blind, the one about as much as the other.

But the transportation question; there's the rub. The Republicans must be kept in power in order that the great issue of cheap transportation may be adjusted successfully for the whole country, and in a manner satisfactory, alike to the grangers and the railway people. "A consummation devoutly to be wished," but this "Union Republican Congressional Committee" announce only a few paragraphs earlier in their address that they did not see how to do anything with the question; they were satisfied it would be bad policy for the State Legislatures to meddle with it, and they had nothing to suggest as to a practicable method for its settlement.

The managers of the Republican party, if there are any managers besides these 'ole clo'' politicians, would do well to impose silence on their official mouthpieces, unless there is a likelihood that their future utterances will be a little more rational and coherent than the document under consideration. The party at large is by no means so idiotic as this committee would make it out to be.

Theodore Tilton avers that the discovery of the relations between his wife and Beecher was long anterior to his acquaintance with Mrs Woodhull. The celebrated letter of apology from Beecher to him was received by him nearly six months before he ever saw the Woodhull.

The election in North Carolina resulted in the choice of seven Democrats and one Republican for Congressmen. The representation heretofore stood five Democrats and three Republicans.

The latest dispatch from the seat of war is that the Plymouth Church Committee have visited the residence of Mr Beecher where they were closeted with him for a long time.

THE STIKINE MINES.

A DISAPPOINTED MINER TELLS HIS STORY—HE SAYS THE DIGGINGS ARE OVERRATED—AND THAT FIVE OR SIX HUNDRED GOLD HUNTERS MUST LEAVE OR STARVE—LIST OF MARKET PRICES, ETC.

CASSIAR DISTRICT, July 25, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Having been requested by several gentlemen from Portland to write the OREGONIAN a true statement of things as they are found here, I have consented to do so, having no other object of reward than the satisfaction of knowing that in this I may save many a poor man from being imposed upon, the same as myself and hundreds of others. There are at least five or six hundred men here, some of whom have been in here since last February and March. No one, except he make the trip, can begin to comprehend the hardship and sufferings they have to encounter who come hither. And now after waiting until patience has ceased to be a virtue, those now here will be obliged to return, because they can get neither claims nor employment. Verily they are not to be blamed for feeling heartily disgusted with Cassiar.

ON DEAS CREEK THERE ARE SOME GOOD MINES.

But in my opinion, they are all overrated. For a distance of 12 or 14 miles every claim on this creek has been taken up. Most of them were taken up by men who wintered here and they would take up a claim to-day and sell it to-morrow. So by bogus bills of sale which they made between each other all the valuable claims were held by this favored few, and of those who came in February and March (the creek being staked off) but very few could find a claim without jumping. Hence came a lot of lawsuits and as the Gold Commissioner, Mr. J. H. Sullivan, was down on what he termed "the dirty jumpers," the later comers had but a poor show.

In order to find out the truth as near as I possibly could I went up Deas creek for a distance of about four miles and got a list of the various companies from the owners thereof. After getting the names of 40 companies I was told that the number of men they will employ (if the claims shall turn out as anticipated) will be 2[illegible]5. And these claims are looked upon as the very best on Deas Creek. This creek will not

GIVE EMPLOYMENT TO OVER 300 MEN,

If it does that. To the west of Deas creek, ten miles from here is Thibert's creek, but as there are only a few good claims on it, from the best information I could get it will give employment to no more than 150 or 200 at most. Hence you see, both these creeks will employ only 600 or 700 men. At present there are in this section about 1,200 or 1,300 men, so 500 or 600 men will have to leave or go hungry, for so far of those who went out prospecting for miles around here, many have returned heartily disgusted with this country and now men are leaving in large numbers every day, never perhaps to visit Cassiar again. There is one singular fact about the mines on Deas creek, which I can't well account for and it is this: The owners of most all of those claims will tell you that early in the spring they took out with a rocker from two to seven ounces a day to the hand. Yet these men are willing to sell out, and there are but few if any claims on this creek that you can't buy for $1,000 or $1,500. The reason for this I can't tell, except it be that the owners have little faith in them.

I have seen the Baronvich Company (three miles up the creek) clean up their sluices at [illegible] for three days their average pay was 3 ozs to the hand per day. This I thought was very good. But when you take into consideration the short season they should take out four or five ounces per day, and even that would not pay them more than $2 50 a day if they count their time and expenses from the time they left civilization until they return. And then when you take into consideration the exorbitant prices which rule in the mines it is easy to see there will not be over three out of ten who will go back with any more than they would have had had they remained at steady work at home.

I will give you a

LIST OF THE MARKET PRICES

Which was kindly furnished me by Mr H. Clarke & Co., and Mr W. J. Stephens, two respectable merchants who are doing business here. It speaks for itself. Flour per 100 lbs $35; bacon $100; beans $80; hams $100; sugar ℔ $1; coffee $1 25; tea $2; rice $1; butter, $1 50; candles $1 25; pepper $1 50; mustard $1; salt 75c; nails $1; steel $1 50; dried apples and peaches ℔ $1; Giant powder $3 50; yeast powder ℔ box 75c; gum boots $18; brandy ℔ case $50; gin $50; Dairville whisky $30; brandy ℔ gal (wholesale) $16; gin $1[illegible]; vinegar $1[illegible]; lard 6 ℔ cans $7; pickles 5 ℔ jars $5; cigars (1,000) from $100 to $200; tobacco ℔ $2; oysters ℔ can $2 50; peaches ℔ can $3; overalls and jumpers from $2 50 to $3 50 each; shirts and drawers ℔ pair $5 to $6; woolen overshirts from $3 50 to $7 50 each; cassimere pants from $8 to $15 each; men's shoes from $6 to $8 a pair; boots $12 to $15; 8 ℔ blankets $1[illegible]; potatoes ℔ $2; fresh meats 5 bits ℔ [illegible]; picks and shovels none in the market.

From the above your readers will naturally conclude that this is a hard country to live in. Well, I will admit that it is, but you would be surprised when traveling on these creeks to see the hospitality which the poor miners extend to all strangers who may be passing their cabins. One is sure to be invited to have something to eat, if it is anywhere near meal time, or if late to stop with them all night. These miners are generous to a fault. Cassiar as a mining camp

WILL NEVER DO TO SWEAR BY.

The country has been overrated. The only men who are making a rich harvest are the steamboat men, the Indians with their canoes, and the packers. Just think of these packers charging 50 cents per pound for packing a distance of about 80 miles which the animals can make in four or five days. And what makes it still worse is the fact that it does not cost them one cent during the packing season for feed, as the country all the way affords the very finest bunch grass. A small town has sprung up within the last few weeks in the way of substantial dog houses.

For one I am not satisfied with this country for if I do not start to the head of the Taco river (in Alaska, and about 80 miles from here) I will return next week to Victoria. I would not advise any man in the country to come here unless he wants to purchase a claim, but if he does he can find lots of them for sale.

Winter commences here about the last of October.

We had a tremendous fire up the creek on the 18th of this month, which burned up eight cabins with all their contents including grub and blankets and a large lot of lumber which was ready for making sluice boxes. The fire swept everything in its way and many a one had hard work to get off with their lives for the woods in all directions were on fire and it was astonishing to see how fast it ran.

Jack McKay lost 2,000 feet of lumber, which sells (when it can be had) for 25 cents per foot.

The mines on Deas and Thibert's creeks

ARE BADLY WORKED.

With few exceptions I noticed on my trip up Deas creek yesterday a claim owned by Mr Mike Powers. He has a lot of men at work and will begin to sluice on Monday the 27th. Unless I am mistaken, he is sure to make lots of money this summer. Mr Powers is a hard-working man and deserves all manner of good luck which he is sure to have soon. I have just learned that day before yesterday Mr John Knott and Joseph Taylor, two Portland men, bought into one of the best claims on Deas creek. They will commence to sluice on Monday the 27th. I am satisfied there is a nice fortune in store for them. Mr J. Taylor has a store here. He has a good and sure trade and another Portland man, John Clark, has interests in several claims which bid fair to turn out well.

But, honestly speaking, there is not one man out of twenty who will not lose money here this season. If men who have thought of coming here don't take this advice and let well enough alone they can blame only themselves for their misfortunes. I hope this may cure some who have the Cassiar fever.

T. C. M.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE

OF VALUABLE FARMING LANDS AND OTHER Property at Auction, belonging to the Estate of C. B. and I. D. Upton, situate in Washington, Clackamas and Multnomah counties and in Clark Co. W. Ter. In accordance with a decree in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, dated Monday, April 6, A. D. 1874, and in pursuance to an order from the creditors of said Estate, I do hereby give notice that on the 27th day of August, A. D. 1874, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. of said day at the Auction Room of A. B. Richardson in the City of Portland, Multnomah county, Oregon, I will offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for gold coin cash in hand the following described Real Estate, to wit:

The east half of the Frances DeWitt Donation Land Claim, containing 80 acres; has a good two story frame House with [illegible] rooms down stairs, [illegible] cellar, smoke house, one story unfinished, good well, [illegible] house and chicken house, good woodshed and two log barns. A good orchard of apple, plum, pear, cherry and peach trees, with the pasture well fenced [illegible] on the north, the [illegible] end of the farm. There are 100 acres of plow Land on the place and 40 acres more that has no timber and could be plowed with a breaking plow if desired. At present it is used for pasture. Of the plow land there is not to exceed 5 acres that has any fern. Both pastures are well watered by running streams the year round.

Also a portion of the Samuel C. Ritchey Donation Land Claim, containing [illegible] 160 acres. Lays a little higher than the above described; has a small house and large barn, good living spring near the house, a creek running through the pasture. On the south end of the place are 40 acres of Prairie now in crop; on the north end there are 34 acres of Beaver Dam Land that is excellent, lying near the Tualatin river and the farms on both sides of this are well drained so that there is no trouble in ditching this piece and joining them. A good county road runs through this place.

Also a portion of N. C. Richardson's Donation Land Claim containing 80 acres; lies on the east of the county road, has 30 acres of Prairie Land, an old orchard, a large log barn and small frame house with four rooms and fireplace; a good well at the house and a stream of living water near the barn at the south end. On this piece there is a swampy tract of some 30 acres or more which has no timber but some willows; when ditched it would make one of the finest meadows in Washington Co.

The above described farms are all adjoining, situated three miles south of Hillsboro, on the line of the O. C. R. R., 20 miles from Portland, and will make one of the best grain farms in the State.

Also the McKay Farm containing 1[illegible]0 acres, situate in what is known as the Forks of the Creek, 2 miles from Webbor's sawmill, and about 3 miles from the town known as Glencoe and 8 miles north of Hillsboro. Between 80 and 100 acres of this Land is rich creek bottom land. Some little improvements. A good county road runs through the place.

Also the Donation Land Claim of D. W. Aldrich and wife containing [illegible] acres. Had originally 60 acres fenced, 5 acres of orchard, 10 acres of meadow, fair frame barn. Has 80 acres of open hazel land, easy to clear. Well watered and situate about one mile from the Tualatin and 4 miles from Oregon City.

Also the Ambrose Field Donation Land Claim containing [illegible] acres [illegible] on the Tualatin river near its mouth, 3 miles from Oregon City. Has 4 acres of plow land and 120 acres open hazel land. No improvements but good land and good water.

Also 10 acres near East Portland in Sec. 20 T 1 S R 1 East.

Also 5 acres near East Portland in Sec. 20 T 1 S R 1 East.

Also 4 acres near Vancouver in Clark Co. W. T.

Also the north half of Block 49 in the city of East Portland.

Also the following Tax Titles: Lot 1 block 123 Portland, lots 1, 3 and 4 block 74 Portland, lots 1 and 4 block 47 East Portland, all of block 2 Caruthers Addition to Portland, lots 2 and [illegible] block 15 Couch's Addition to Portland, lot 1 block 5 Couch's Addition to Portland, [illegible] T 1 N R 1 W, and [illegible] T 1 N R 1 W, [illegible] sec. 19 T 1 N R 1 W, [illegible] sec. 23 and [illegible] sec. 28, T 1 N R 3 East.

Also 5 Shares Odd Fellows Stock.

The above property will all be sold in separate parcels. The sale is positive and without reserve. All Deeds at expense of purchaser.

For further particulars address the Assignee.

CITY.

A PSEUDO SHOOTING AFFAIR.—About 8 30 Saturday evening two pistol shots were heard at the corner of Alder and Second streets. Both shots were fired almost simultaneously but a few second intervening. "Somebody's shot!" was the exclamation which rose instantly to the lips of hundreds who heard the reports and with the memory of that fatal tragedy which occurred on the 13th of June still fresh and vivid in the minds of all the crowd rushed in indiscriminate haste toward the scene of the firing. As the shooting occurred almost in the [illegible] of [illegible] down the denizens from the [illegible] [illegible] rookeries sprang up as if by a touch [illegible] [illegible] the traditional Jack Robinson it seemed as if a thousand Celestials were assembled about the spot of the supposed tragedy. No white Melican man much behind [illegible] drawn by that irresistible curiosity which attaches to all things human hundreds came [illegible] in towards a common center of attraction. Two minutes from the time of the shooting the streets and sidewalks presented a mass of elbowing excited surging and inquiring humanity. Not since the time when the two [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] mooted which have grown to be regarded as the great enigmas of the present century viz "Who struck Billy Patterson" and "Who killed Cock Robin" has the public mind been more perturbed than tonight. This time the question was "Who fired the shot?" Although the conundrum was propounded something less than one thousand and eight times no one would [illegible] response which could abate the clamor of the populace. A number of policemen hearing the report ran in the direction but arrived on the ground as badly puzzled as the most ignorant. Everybody had a theory to advance—was excited talked loud and learnedly to his neighbors but when asked the question "Did you see the shooting?" such person could only say that some irresponsible individual whose name could not be recalled at the moment, had told them that one Chinaman had shot twice at another. And thus the story ran until the fact became indisputably established that one Chinaman in a [illegible] [illegible] actually discharged a deadly weapon to wit a pistol at one of his honored countrymen. The police made vigorous and vigilant search for the shootists but to no avail. At length one of the parties—the one for whom the shots were intended—was identified and after much clamor and "Me no Sabe" was taken to the city jail. On being taken there he told his story in a straight and truthful manner. He and the shooter were unfortunate enough to love the same celestial damsel and because forsooth she deigned to cast her almond orbs complacently upon him his hated rival made that a pretext for attempting to lodge a couple of pieces of galena in his corpus. He was released and search renewed for the one who it is alleged did the shooting. Up to a late hour last night the search was without avail. A large number of Chinamen joined in the search and expressed a determination to assist the officers in finding the murderous culprit. However this can be taken for what it is worth for the secretiveness and duplicity of the race is too well known in matters wherein their comrades are involved in acts of criminality. A more lively and exciting scene has not been witnessed on our streets for a long time. It might appropriately come under the head of "Sunday Amusements" with the trifling exception that no blood was spilled and every person retired from the scene agreeably disappointed.

A JUVENILE THIEF.—Mention was made last week of a burglary committed at Milwaukie on the premises of Rev John Sellwood during the temporary absence of the inmates. Among other articles stolen was a volume of the American Encyclopedia and also a number of bound illustrated papers which were deposited in the woods near by. It appears that this theft was committed by a boy named Charles Walker aged about fourteen years. This lad was strongly suspicioned, and on being accused confessed that he was the ringleader, three other small boys in the neighborhood being implicated in the affair. Since making the confession Walker has disappeared from that vicinity, doubtless fearing arrest. A few days after the disappearance of Walker a horse was stolen from the pasture of a Mr Botan who resides near Wills' mills on the Oregon City road. It also appears that young Walker stole the animal. He came down to East Portland and attempted to dispose of the horse. Failing to sell the animal, the young thief came over to this city but could not meet with any better success, as persons were suspicious as to how the boy came in possession of the horse. He left the city and when last heard of was riding in the direction of Sandy. Mr Botan the owner of the stolen animal tracked the young thief to this city and at last accounts an officer was in pursuit. This wayward juvenile it would seem has made an early start for the Penitentiary.

HAIL STORM.—A gentleman who came last week from Yakima via the old emigrant road across the Cascade mountains informs us that the late rain and thunder storm was very severe some distance east of here. On the evening on which the storm occurred our informant camped some distance this side of the [illegible] of the mountains. After the thunder and lightning the rain descended in torrents for a short period. Following this came a terrific hail storm which continued for nearly two hours. The hail stones were quite small but fell in immense quantities, so that when the storm abated the hail lay on the ground to the depth of about four inches. Near by stood a wheat field which was completely riddled, scarcely a stalk left standing. Next morning hail could be found in large quantities where it had been drifted about and not melted. Our informant could not determine how large a slope of country the storm passed over and there are no means of ascertaining the damage to the fruit and grain crops.

MELANCTHON ARRIVED.—This bark Captain Patterson arrived at port from San Francisco yesterday morning about 6 o clock. She sailed on the 21st ult and was sixteen days in making the passage between San Francisco and the bar. A succession of calms and head winds were encountered during the passage which accounts for the protracted voyage. The Melancthon is regarded as a very fair sailer and the present is one of the longest passages which she has ever yet made between ports. After baffling about for more than two weeks the bark arrived off the bar last Friday and she crossed over and arrived at Astoria in safety. Soon after the Melancthon was taken in tow by the Beaver and brought as far as the mouth of the Willamette when night coming on the vessel came to anchor. At an early hour yesterday morning the steamer Beaver hitched on and brought the bark up. She brings about 200 tons of assorted cargo.

PASSENGER LIST.—The steamer Ajax which sailed from San Francisco for this port on Saturday brings the following passengers: Capt. Campbell and family, Captain Field and family, Lieut Quinan and wife, Lieut Dyer, Dr Soule, Capt Nettleville and wife, N Meyer, R E Bower, A Froenbach, I A Ripperton, T J Clark and wife, P Hinchfield, H Rosenfeld, L Stark wife and niece, Miss F J Blackburn, Mrs S Kellogg and child, E Polhemus, W I Highfield, A Seely, W P Curtis, Mrs V C Davis, M V Koontz, J G Kelly and wife, Mrs C [illegible] Swain, Miss M Emery, H Garrett, L H Nichols, P F Brigham, F M Hines, J Bevins, Jr, J Bevins and wife.

PROBABLY INSANE.—A woman known as Rose Townsend of notorious easy virtue was arrested last evening by the police officers for conducting herself in a boisterous and indecorous manner. She was singing and breaking up the furniture in her house at a furious rate when discovered by the officers and soon after she was taken to the city jail and placed in a cell. Up to a late hour last evening she continued to sing and talk incoherently and behaved herself in an insane manner. It is thought that she is insane, and unless she soon becomes more rational to-day she will be taken before the proper authorities and examined.

ALONG THE CITY FRONT.—Moored at the wharves and below yesterday were the barks Portland (at lower sawmill), Garibaldi, Hiram, Moonbeam; barkentine Melancthon; ship Orissa; schooners Dreadnought, Hero, Mila Bond; steamers California, Senator, Okanagan, Annie Stewart, Rescue, Oneonta, Dixie Thompson, Welcome, Beaver. At Brooklyn lies the Grover and Shoshone—Altogether quite a [illegible] of shipping.

OVER DRIVING.—A man who is known as "Frenchy" was arrested last evening on complaint of Chas P Bacon charged with cruelty to horses. Frenchy hired a team of Mr Bacon yesterday and in company with a nymph du pave called Mollie Cotton started for the White House. Both became very drunk before returning and were very loud and boisterous. When Frenchy came back with the team the horses were in a lather of sweat and exhibited symptoms of great exhaustion. From all appearances the animals had been driven unmercifully hard. It is supposed that on account of the intoxicated condition the driver rendered all the more probable. Mr Bacon immediately swore out a complaint and had Frenchy arrested. He was committed to jail in default of bond and the case will be the subject of legal investigation in the Police Court this morning.

ARRIVED.—The schooners Dreadnought and Hero and barkentine Melancthon arrived from San Francisco since our last issue. They bring assorted cargoes.

MME. ANNA BISHOP'S THIRD CONCERT.

On the occasion of the third and last of the Bishop concerts, Saturday evening, Masonic Hall was filled with an excellent audience. The programme was well arranged and handsomely rendered throughout. Mr Harry J Lask's "Delta Kappa Epsilon March" met with deserved applause, and Mr Campbell's "Who Treads the Path of Duty" (Magic Flute) displayed that gentleman's robust voice to much better advantage than any other selection he has yet given. He sang with spirit and was rewarded with an enthusiastic encore in response to which he gave "Dublin Bay." Mme Bishop sang the recitative and cavatina "Ernani Involami" (Ernani) with consummate skill and received a hearty encore to which she responded. In "My Pretty Jane" we were reminded that Mr Wilkie can sing some things better than others. He sang rather mechanically but his encore helped him out. Mrs Marriner's appearance was greeted with long continued applause and her singing in that charming little song "Love may come to morrow" fully warranted the enthusiastic encore, to which she responded with "There's nae room for twa"—a splendid Scotch ballad. The quartette "Blow Blow Thou Winter Wind" is one of the old fashioned English glees which for richness of harmony have never been equaled in more modern glee music.

Part second opened with "The Old Sexton" by Mr Campbell—a performance which was loudly applauded and which brought him forward with a song quaintly humorous. Mr Lask's accompaniment to "The Old Sexton" was noticeably good. "Baby Lyes"—a new ballad, words by R S Hill, music by J H Brenner, of this city—sung by Mme Bishop, was well received. "Solo Profugo Rejetto" (Martha di Flotow) duet with solos—was well rendered by Messrs Campbell and Wilkie. Mrs Marriner's song "Of Home" elicited an encore. In "Good bye Sweetheart, Good bye" Mr Wilkie showed a little well concealed weariness of voice perhaps. Mme Bishop gave a chansonette and the concert ended with the magnificent duet "Mira Norma" and "Ah! Bello Si Imo All Ore" in which Mrs Marriner, as alto sang magnificently, and Mme Bishop sustained the difficult soprano of the original score with noticeable ease. We hope all of our readers who have a love for the artistic in music will not fail to hear this company during their brief stay. The people of Oregon have never before heard such talent here and it will be many a day we wot, before they are again similarly favored.

CASSIAR NEWS.

The steamer Otter arrived at Victoria on the 4th inst, from which the Colonist obtains the following news from the gold fields:

The news from the mines is not of an encouraging nature. Thibert Creek is not turning out well and even on Deas Creek some claims which prospected well have been proved to be worthless. Packing from the head of navigation on the Stickine to Deas Lake a distance of only about 80 miles is charged at the rate of about 45 cents per pound, and provisions are consequently very dear and scarce. On this ground the Gold Commissioner had it in contemplation to lay over the claims until next summer and it would be only just and right so to do.

Mr McLeod who came down on the Otter had a very narrow escape on the trail between Deas Lake and Stickine river. He was bringing out a good deal of gold dust and riding alone the horse was snatching tufts of grass as he walked along but most fortunately Mr McLeod happened to get impatient, and struck the animal over the head with his blind, the horse started off and just at the moment two men with blackened faces rushed out and fired two shots at McLeod, neither however, taking effect. It is supposed that one of these two ruffians is now in custody and that the other has left the Stickine. This is the same Mr McLeod who had a narrow escape with his life when the packers were robbed, and three out of eight shot down on the Bentinck Arm trail in 1864, (by the Chilcotin Indians).

Mr Malcolm McLeod, who left Deas creek twelve days ago and is known as a most reliable man, says that about 20 claims were being worked. The average yield was wages. Moore & Co were taking out two ozs a day to the hand. Rath Bros had wing-dammed and were just ready to work pay dirt. George Williscoft was taking out good pay. Ike Stevens was doing well. Several other claims were also paying. Many claims that prospected well had been abandoned. Grub was very dear and scarce. Freight from Wrangle to Buck's Bar $60 per ton. From Buck's Bar to Deas creek $300 to $1 000 a ton! Of course under this state of things none but very rich claims will remunerate the workers. There was much excitement about the charge of two cents per pound on goods passing over Moore's trail and the local government is bitterly denounced for granting the charter. The parties prospecting Liard river had not returned. Steele had gone to Yukon river. The health of the district was good—neither sickness nor deaths since the demise of Wilcox.

AMUSEMENTS.

This morning Madame Bishop accompanied by her talented company will start up the valley. An entertainment will be given this evening at Reed's Opera House in Salem. To morrow evening an entertainment will be given at Albany and another at Eugene City on Wednesday. On Thursday the Company will return to this city, and on the evening of that day a grand complimentary benefit will be tendered Mrs Marriner. Mr Campbell and Mrs Marriner will take their departure on the Ajax for San Francisco, which will sail hence on Friday. The remainder of the Company—Madame Bishop, Mr Wilkie and Mr Lask—will start the first of next week for Eastern Oregon and Washington Territory. During the professional tour up the valley we shall be pleased to hear of crowded houses wherever performances are given for a more talented and deserving concert company has never visited the State before.

Prof Garrison the second baseman of the College club is teaching the Coos Bay folks how to [illegible]. He tried to weather it on a tug outside the bar several days and it was too much for him and he paid the usual tribute to Old Nep.

Yesterday afternoon several sail boats engaged in a contest. About three o clock the boats started from opposite the boat house and not until they reached the lower mill did they make much headway as the wind was light. They rounded the buoy at Swan Island coming up very slowly past the city, the Owl in advance closely followed by the Nameless. They proceeded to a buoy at Ross Island turned and came in at the starting point about 5 0 P M in the following order: Nameless, Owl, Cricket, Ella May. Whole distance six miles. Quite a number of sail boats followed in the wake of the contestants presenting to the view a most animated picture. Small boats and shells studded the water in numbers and added considerably to the scene of excitement. The wharves were filled with interested spectators. The winning boat captured a purse as its prize.

On Saturday afternoon eleven representatives of the Pioneer Base Ball Club met eleven of St George Cricket Club on the East Portland grounds. Game commenced at 2 30 o clock—the cricketers handling the bat. Messrs Buchtel and Barker bowled for the Pioneers and they found it difficult work to retire their opponents who knocked the balls in every direction. Oliver bowled towards the last and the St George batters began to pop the balls up which suited the base ballists exactly. Seventy seven runs were credited to the cricketers when their innings closed. It was now the turn for the base ballists to handle the bats. They opened very well but occasionally one would forget the guard and blaze away expecting to knock the ball a long distance and down would go the wickets. It was evident the ball tossers were at sea, and they retired with only 32 runs. The cricketers being desirous of giving the amateurs a chance to learn more of batting, allowed them the bat for their second inning, with the understanding that if the base ballists should run their tallies any considerable number above those made by the regulars, the second innings should be played by the latter. The base ballists managed to get even 40 runs with several wides and byes being credited to them which gave them a trifling majority. It was decided not to continue the game. For the Pioneers, Wiley led the score, and Rome for the Cricket Club. The latter gentleman took his bat out after making 40 of the 77 runs. He is undoubtedly the best player in the Club. Dick Bird took the bat out for the Pioneers—after having made one run in the first inning. Messrs Floyd and Harrison umpired. Although the base ballists were not up in the game they did very well and throughout the best feeling prevailed. As the game progressed the novices were better pleased, and it is likely they may try the sport again. At the conclusion of the game nines were made up from the base ballists and cricketers under the captaincy of Oliver and John Bird respectively. Four innings were played resulting in favor of the latter 13 to 12.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Bishop troupe at Salem to night.

Boat sailing was a fashionable amusement yesterday.

The bark Malay from New York for this port is out about 80 days.

Southern mails arrive an hour earlier than usual. The change was made a week ago.

[illegible] the boat builder turned out as handsome four oared pleasure boat last week.

Quite a number of persons returned to the city last evening from the Canby campmeeting.

Charles Wheatleigh and a full dramatic company will be here for a short season, next month.

The steamer Senator brought over the passengers from the cars last evening. The ferry was out of order.

About a dozen Portlanders are now sojourning at Oysterville. They are [illegible] themselves finely.

Quite a sensation was caused on Washington street last evening by four men who acted very disorderly as they proceeded down that thoroughfare.

We notice something new in the advertising line. It is a music book gotten up by Gray's Music Store containing an excellent selection of the latest and most popular sheet music and on the blank pages are the advertisements of the prominent business houses in the city. They are intended to be placed in the parlors of hotels and on the river boats.

PERSONAL

W S Ladd was rusticating in New Hampshire when last heard from. He is not expected home for six weeks.

Byron Z Holmes Esq, and wife of this city arrived at Victoria last week where they propose to spend several weeks with relatives and friends.

From the Register we learn that 21 acres of land lying between the Short claim, on which Vancouver is built and the Government Reserve have been entered by the authorities under the Town Site Act and that a patent will soon issue which will set at rest one of the troubles connected with the unfortunate history of the Vancouver town site.

The Ogden (Utah) Junction of the 27th ult. contains the following: While Mr I N Goodale was up at the mouth of the Bench canal turning off the water he saw during a big storm last week what he supposed was a fall of hail, about ten rods distant from him covering the ground to the depth of two inches. On going to the spot he found the ground covered with millions of small white toads. Now, "where did them toads come from?" is what the curious Ogdenites want to know.

The new Tacoma and Puyallup road is receiving careful attention and the expenditure of considerable money. The whole work will cost $2,500. Of this amount $1 200 were subscribed by the farmers in the valley, several hundreds by the townspeople, and the remainder is from the road tax fund. The new [illegible] what is known as Clark's Creek Bridge. There a new [illegible] has been ordered established, with D M Ross as Postmaster and a mail route to Tacoma was also established by act of the recent Congress.

The Vancouver Register of last Saturday says: A cutting scrape took place between a couple of belligerent gentlemen in Vancouver on Monday evening last that came near proving fatal. The row grew out of a dispute about a beef contract, which ended in the contractor making a serious attempt to chop up the butcher into mince meat. The slashes on head and back were fearfully lengthy another blow or two would have left the dispenser of steak in good sized chunks to be weighed in separate pieces on the scales. No arrests have yet been made.

A goodly number of substantial improvements are now under way in Olympia. In Swantown the Seminary is enclosed and ready for shingling, Mr A R Elder's house is in the same condition. Mr Boynton has a fine residence in course of construction, Mr Foster has just laid the foundation for a good sized dwelling house. On this side of the bay Mr S Barker's large two story house is rapidly progressing under the hands of several mechanics. Mr Billings brick dwelling is nearly ready for occupancy. Putting down new and repairing old sidewalks and crossings and improving the streets in needed places is going on daily.

For Fine and Artistic Photographs go to Buchtel & Stolte 31 and 33 First Street, the only First Class Gallery in the State.

Is Your Stomach Uneasy?

Many a dyspeptic Croesus would be willing it is said to give half his wealth for an easy stomach. If this is a fact, why do any of our solid men continue to endure the pangs of Indigestion. Is it not patent to the whole community that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will cure the worst case of chronic dyspepsia in six or eight weeks. No occasion for the expenditure of half a fortune, a few dollars will suffice to accomplish the object. Surely every man who is not sand blind to the great utilitarian facts of the day must know that this celebrated vegetable specific promptly relieves all diseased conditions of the stomach, liver, bowels and nervous system, restores their vigor and imparts regularity to their functions. Is your epigastrium uneasy? Is the vulture disease gnawing at your liver? If so, resort at once to the Bitters.

In our local finances but little has occurred of noteworthy importance We are satisfied that the days of the exorbitant rates for money which were once the rule in our State, will never come again and that when we have once recovered from the long period of dullness which has prevailed not only here but all over our country this state will go forward in the march of prosperity with quickened pace. The money market may still be quoted as easy, accommodation as being free at 10@12 for long loans

Coinage at the United States Mint at San Francisco during July amounted to [illegible] making a total for the year of [illegible] The last [illegible] is larger than for any [illegible] period since the Mint commenced operations The operations of the month were, Gold Double eagles, $11 120, 000 eagles $50 000 half eagles, $35 000 Silver Trade dollars $1 576 000 half dollars, $149,000, quarter dollars $28,000 dimes $24,000 The Mint is now engaged in coining double eagles and the operations for the current month are expected to be large The demand for trade dollars continues for export to China.

The theory among a certain class of financiers for years, has been that the increase of gold and silver in the world was so much greater than that of other articles for the value of which gold is a standard that the prices of all sorts of commodities, especially in Europe were gradually rising higher and higher But this theory has not stood the test of statistics and during the last few months the London Economist has published a number of articles comparing the prices of a large number of commodities now with the prices which they bore in the past years to show that the tendency of values has for nearly all articles and in all markets been steadily downward for nearly two years But now the opinion seems to prevail in Europe—and with this opinion the Economist coincides—that the bottom has been reached and that from the present time forth there will be a gradual improvement in business and a slow upward tendency in the prices of commodities generally If the trades unions are broken up and industry allowed to start again on a scale of wages which manufacturers can afford to pay the increase of industry will of course cause an increased consumption of almost all staple articles and with this increased consumption will come higher prices which will eventually admit of higher wages. In England the iron and coal trades are exceptions to the general rule of more favorable prospects for the future In the iron trade especially England has lost her supremacy and while everything in that line is still greatly depressed in Great Britain the indications of the revival of the iron trade in the United States are increasing. This is indeed encouraging The revival could not begin in any one pursuit of all our various industries, that would give a [illegible] evidence of being general and lasting than that of iron

The principal business houses of New York are quite cheerful over the prospects of trade. The head of a large commission house who has had an experience of forty years in the produce business affirms that he never knew things to look more healthy and promising than at present. The only discouraging reports from any quarter are concerning the grasshoppers and it is believed that the reports of their devastations have been considerably exaggerated As regards transportation, farmers have never been able to send their products to market, both by land and water, so cheap [illegible]

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—The receipt of the first of the new crop is noted and proves to be of prime quality clean plump and bright, but as yet only a few small lots have come to hand, there being two or three reasons why trade in the cereal is so dull But the chief is as before noticed that the exporters and farmers seem unable to look at the future in the same light The price offered here for wheat sacked and delivered for export is $1 40 per cental which is all that is justified by the prospects abroad say the shippers while the farmers say that the supply of tonnage will be abundant and when the exporters find a fleet of vessels on their hands which they must load or pay damages they will see that the best thing they can do is to come to the producers terms These are about the ideas that are held and though the money supply is good, the grain market is almost bare of transactions. Should this disagreement result in the ordering of vessels now on the way here being ordered to seek cargoes elsewhere, it will be a serious thing for our State's prosperity

FLOUR—A good article of extra Flour is in fair supply jobbing at $5@5 25 ℔ bbl but a few brands of standard qualities are held at $5 50 Common country make is in the market in fair quantities for the season at $4 75@5 fine to superfine quotable at $4@4 50 At these figures the stocks are being worked off gradually and by the time the new Wheat crop is ready to be ground supplies here will be comparatively light. The local trade is not brisk at present.

OATS—In this cereal there seems to be but little interest taken at present, buyers not being numerous who are at all anxious to handle any considerable lots at current rates which are not above 40 cents ℔ bushel for choice in sacks. The receipts during the past week have been very light, but with the supply of this and other sorts of feed on hand the trade, dull as it is, is adequately supplied

BARLEY—But very few transactions are noted and these mostly so as to supply the local demand for brewing. Best lots are worth $1 45@1 50 ℔ cwt, including sacks. Inferior $1 25@1 40 for feed.

FEED—The stocks on hand here are quite small, compared with the [illegible] in the [illegible] but are still adequate to the current demand, which is mainly local, and, as always light at this time in the summer Sales are slow at the current rates, which are $[illegible] ℔ ton for bran shorts $1 [illegible] chopped middlings, etc. $30

HAY—There is a great abundance of the new crop of timothy offering at $10@11 ℔ ton baled or $8 50@9 for loose from wagons. The demand except for local consumption is very dull.

POTATOES—There is no lack either in quantity or variety of the new crop now coming to hand Prices range from 37½@50c ℔ bushel

ONIONS—Receipts during the week are only moderate, and prices remain at $2@2 25 ℔ 100 lbs with [illegible] chances of 25 cents more on extra lots

DRIED FRUIT—The demand for apples is somewhat brisker and prices have slightly advanced We quote in drums 7c ℔ lb in kegs 7½c. Plums without pits, 13@14c with pits, 6c and dull.

BACON—The market is well supplied with hams and shoulders which do not find very rapid sales at 13@14c ℔ lb for hams common and 8@9c for shoulders. Side meats are in better request at 10@11c The receipts of the past few days have hardly been up to average.

LARD—A fair article is in good demand at 14c ℔ lb, either in kegs or tins.

BUTTER—The market is fairly supplied, and prices for such as is commonly shipped range from [illegible] ℔ lb The best brought to market is used in the local trade, and when not delivered on contract is quotable at 25@30c.

CHEESE—The trade is quiet and the demand well supplied at our former quotations

EGGS Many very bad lots are reaching the market, one-third of some boxes being unfit to use The receipts of good lots have been light for several days and prices for such are firm at 25@28c ℔ dozen.
